

Commission on Dental Accreditation Staff Biographical Information

Dr. Sherin Tooks, EdD, MS, director, Commission on Dental Accreditation

Dr. Sherin Tooks has been with the Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA) since January 2002 and was appointed Director of CODA in November 2012. Prior to her appointment as Director, Dr. Tooks held the position of Manager, Advanced Dental Education within the Commission. Dr. Tooks oversees the operations of the Commission and serves as staff secretary of the Standing Committee on Finance, the Standing Committee on Quality Assurance and Strategic Planning, the Standing Committee on Nominations, and the Standing Committee on International Accreditation. Dr. Tooks has guided the Commission through important initiatives, including strategic planning, re-recognition by the United States Department of Education and, most recently, CODA's development of an electronic accreditation platform. Dr. Tooks holds a Master of Science degree in dental hygiene education, from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Dentistry and a Doctor of Education degree, with an emphasis in educational leadership, from the University of Phoenix.

Ms. Jamie Asher Hernandez, MS, manager, Allied Dental Education

Ms. Jamie Asher Hernandez supports CODA's accreditation program for allied dental education, working specifically with dental assisting and dental laboratory technology education programs. Jamie also supports the Commission's allied dental education Review Committees, and serves as a resource to CODA's communities of interest related to dental assisting and dental laboratory technology education matters. Jamie began her career as an educator and has worked for several associations and nonprofit organizations. Prior to joining CODA, Jamie worked at the Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics. At the Academy, Jamie served as an accreditation and education manager with the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition & Dietetics (ACEND) and also served as a manager with the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) focusing on professional development for dietitians and dietetic technicians. Jamie holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from the University of Holy Cross in New Orleans, Louisiana and a Master of Science degree in Public Service Management with a focus in nonprofit management from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois.

Ms. Kirsten Nadler, MS, manager, Advanced Dental Education

Ms. Kirsten Nadler supports CODA's accreditation program for advanced dental education, working specifically with dental public health, oral and maxillofacial pathology, oral and maxillofacial radiology, pediatric dentistry, and prosthodontics education programs. Kirsten also has oversight of the site visit process, works with advanced dental education Review Committees, and acts as a resource to CODA's communities of interest related to advanced dental education issues. Prior to joining the CODA team, Ms. Nadler has worked in accreditation and education program development roles at medical specialty societies including the Radiological Society of North America, the American Academy of Pediatrics, and the American Medical Association. Kirsten holds a Master of Science degree in Biotechnology Studies from the University of Maryland University College.

Ms. Peggy Soeldner, MEd, manager, Advanced Dental Education

Ms. Peggy Soeldner has been with the Commission for more than twenty years. During this time, she has supported advanced dental education, specifically, the disciplines of advanced education in general dentistry, general practice residency, dental anesthesiology, oral medicine and orofacial pain. In addition, Peggy staffs the Standing Committee on Documentation and Policy. Prior to joining CODA, Ms. Soeldner worked in student services and admissions at the University of Chicago, Pritzker School of Medicine. Peggy holds a Master's degree in Adult and Continuing Education from Northern Illinois University.

Ms. Kelly Stapleton, MEd, manager, Predoctoral Dental Education

Ms. Stapleton supports CODA's accreditation program for predoctoral dental education and dental therapy education programs and provides staff support for the Review Committee of Predoctoral Dental Education. Kelly also assists on consultation activities for international dental education programs and supports the Standing Committee on International Accreditation. Prior to joining CODA, Kelly began her career as a classroom teacher in Milwaukee, WI, and Chicago, IL. Kelly transitioned to higher education administration where she supported the knowledge and behavioral assessment programs at Rush University Medical College in Chicago, IL. Kelly holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Education and Sociology from Marquette University, a Professional Educator License in the state of Illinois, and a Master of Science in Education degree in Educational Leadership from Indiana University Bloomington.