CODA Special Closed Meeting October 13, 2020 - Unofficial Report of Major Actions

The Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA) conducted a special, closed meeting on October 13, 2020.

During this special meeting, the Commission considered the temporary flexibility guidance that may exist related to ongoing interruption of education for the Class of 2021. The Commission also considered accreditation matters related to interruption of education reports for educational programs.

The Unofficial Report of Major Actions is available via the button below as a source of information for communities of interest on actions taken during this Special Meeting of the Commission. You may also navigate to the Unofficial report by visiting ada.org/coda and clicking on Accreditation > Post Meeting Actions.

The Temporary Flexibility in Accreditation Standards for the Class of 2021 are provided on the Commission's COVID-19 webpage. Navigate to this page by visiting ada.org/coda and clicking on the COVID-19 link on the homepage. The Guidelines for Reporting on Interruption of Education During COVID-19, specifically related to the Class of 2021, are under development and will be posted as soon as possible. Please keep in mind that all Commission-accredited education programs must submit, by March 2021, a report on interruption of education for the Class of 2021. This report is due whether or not the program has implemented temporary flexibility for the Class of 2021.

Please contact the appropriate Commission office staff with any questions or comments. Review the Staff Directory by visiting ada.org/coda and clicking on Contact > Staff Directory.
